

Was not written by the Enoch who was taken (Raptured) to Heaven by GOD in Genesis chapter 5.
In fact nothing survived that predates Noah's Flood save for Noah himself, his family, and the animals.

Was written by a Priest in Israel named after Enoch about 150 years prior to Christ during the Intertestamental Period between the Old and New Testaments of the Bible during the time of the Maccabees.

Enoch was very popular and influential in his day. He would be the Billy Graham of his time by our standards.

Yes, Jesus affirmed, quoted, and endorsed the original writings of Enoch the priest.
The Book of Enoch is not included in the Holy Bible simply because after his the Priest Enoch's death the Pharisee's added to his recordings of the events Jesus talked about.
Willfully corrupting Enoch's work.

Should I read the book of Enoch?
Yes, Jesus recommended it several times with this stipulation; Jesus only quoted the actual events of Enoch's life, not all of the stuff that was added afterwards. Today modern Jewish scholars will only use Enoch's words and none of the add on's.

Great writings such as Dante's Inferno or otherwise known as the Divine Comedy are based upon Enoch's revelations of Hell as in the worst spot in Hell is reserved for false religious teachers causing others to go there.

The Bible and Enoch explain that Hell is a holding cell. Not unlike a local jail for those awaiting the eternal Lake of Fire.

The Book of Enoch

Are the words of Enoch sacred scripture?

No they are not.

Just as Billy Graham preached GOD'S Holy Word so did Enoch. Billy Graham is famous for books that he wrote on Prayer and Heaven.

Enoch is famous for recording an encounter he had with a Fallen (Angel) a Demon.

All of these writings; Billy's and Enoch's are certainly useful for us but are they Holy writ? Nay we say.

So what did Enoch experience that Jesus Himself says was real?
Enoch records that while he was in Prayer he was approached by a Fallen Demon asking him that he (Enoch) submit a request before the Lord from them (plural) a group of Fallen, who have realized that they have made a terrible mistake by rebelling against GOD and following Lucifer.
Enoch says that he would do this he said not for the Fallen's sake but for his own because he knows everything a Fallen says or claims is always based upon lies and deception for an evil agenda.
Enoch did not want to be confused or deceived so he brought it before the Lord in Prayer.

A smart and faithful man trusting in GOD for resolution.

GOD was awaiting Enoch's Prayer.

Of course the Lord was aware of what was going on and GOD was none to pleased. In short;
GOD explained that they the Fallen knew exactly what they were doing when they rebelled and He the Lord allowed them to walk away. The Lord did not destroy them, GOD lets them continue for a purpose. Now the Fallen have what they wanted independence from GOD, and they have found it to be as the Lord warned them it would be outside of His presence; all darkness, sorrow, shame, and pain.
GOD also explains that they the Fallen are permanently lost. Period.

We as in mankind have a second chance because of Eve. The Devil who's name is Lucifer lied to her deceiving her. So GOD gives to us a path of Salvation through Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior for redemption.

Lucifer claimed that even we as puny human beings would all reject GOD if we were given a free choice to do so.

GOD allows Lucifer to tempt and destroy to separate once and for all those who will be born and love GOD willingly. All others this be human and demonic, will be separated as they willingly wish to be, forever from GOD and His family.

Yes! that is why GOD created us, to be His family. GOD gives to us will, intellect, empathy, and eternal life.

Remember Eve was deceived so we get a second chance because Adam added onto GOD'S Word.
What you say? GOD told Adam not to eat of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil lest on that day you shall die. This be immediately Spiritually and ultimately physically as sin sets in- corrupting us heart , mind, body, and soul. Adam exaggerated when he added onto GOD'S Word by telling Eve she would die if she even touched that tree. Satan mocked and said you won't die for touching that tree! No doubt the Devil reached out and plucked a fruit.

Satan used Adam's add on's to GOD'S Word against Eve and she began to question and doubt GOD in her mind when Adam's additions though good intentioned were exposed as false. So we human beings get a second chance because Eve was deceived while the Fallen willingly rebelled do not.

Enoch was shown Hell and how it contains different levels of punishment (confinement) and for others continual punishing for vile sin & crimes.

Enoch also explains that our Greek legends were the result of fallen/human offspring.
Demons possessed humans and had children. All to pollute the human lineage to prevent the birth of a Messiah.
